

Volume 22 Number 9 The official newsletter of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins Booster Club April, 2021

President's Thoughts

By Vicki Silva

Well, it seems that we are heading in the right direction. We actually got to go to a hockey game. Everything was handled very well, people were seated with adequate social distance, masks were required and the ushers were reinforcing this, hand sanitizers were placed in many different locations through out the arena. I can't tell you how much I appreciated the players saluting the fans even though they lost. Very classy move on their part. I hope and pray that people continue to follow the rules, so that we can all be safe and move forward to enjoy all our home games.

Our guys are playing very well, not winning every game, but appear to be trying very hard. The call ups to Pittsburgh makes it more difficult of course, but again that's what they work for.

While I really miss being with all of our friends, bus trips, and meetings, I am feeling more positive that we are slowly moving in the right direction. We will all get there (back to normal) soon. One thing has changed, that being, that I appreciate all your friendships and the game of hockey more than ever.

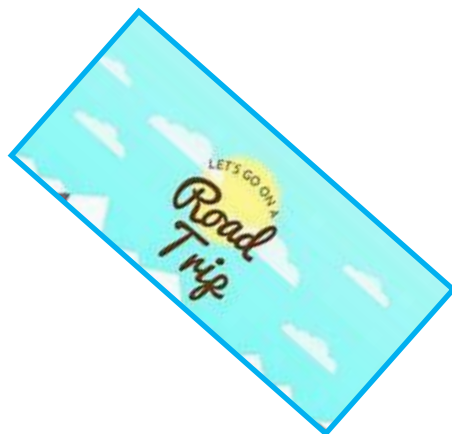

Let's Go Pens!!!!
